

Weekend School

Principal: _____
 Year: _____

Vice Principal: _____
 Hijra: _____

Student Responsibilities

Every student attending the _____ Weekend School must abide by the following rules:

- Be on time
- Be attentive in the Assembly, and NO talking during the Assembly
- Must wear proper clothes according to the Islamic Dress codes
  - Boys: Must wear long/short sleeve shirt, with pants. NO shorts NO jewelry NO body piercing
  - Girls: Must wear clothing that covers the whole body, and cover their hair. Head cover and clothing must not be transparent, and clothing should not be tight fitting.
- Must greet friends and family members with Islamic greetings
- No unnecessary boy-girl mingling
- Must purchase all required texts for each class/course
- Respect your teachers, Administrators, and all elder and younger schoolmates
- Attend all of your classes
- Inform your teacher and the school of your absence before hand
- Make-up quizzes and homework will be given at the willingness of the teacher. Forms for Make-up Requests are available at the front desk
- Students are not allowed to take food or drinks to classrooms
- No violence of any sort will be tolerated
- You must fill out appropriate form in order to leave school early
- Zuhr Prayer after 3rd period class is part of your curriculum, and absence from prayer's will effect your grade
- Cheating will not be tolerated
- Failing in one or more of your courses in each class will lead to failure of the whole class.
- Any poor in/out class behavior will lead to referral to the Dean and result in suspension.

School policies and curriculum are designed to make you a better student and a better Muslim.

Weekend School
 Administration