- Reason for sending prophets is given, Difference between believers and non-believers of different kinds is highlighted.
- Rewards of believers and punishment of non-believers are highlighted

Summary:

- The disbelievers among 'Ahl al-Kitab and Mushrikeen will not be abandoned by Allah (SWT) until there comes to them clear evidence of truth
- The followers of earlier revelations did break up their unity (of faith) after clear evidence of the truth had come to them
- They have been commanded only to worship Allah, establish Salat (Regular prayer), and pay Zakat (the poor-due). That is the true Deen (religion)
- Those who disbelieve are the worst of the creatures, and will abide in the hell-fire and those who believe and do righteous deeds are the best of the creatures, and will be rewarded with garden (of Eden)
- Since creation, Allah's Deen is same; Obey Allah SWT instructions
- Establish Ibaadah exclusively for him, Establish prayers, give charity
- The polytheists, Jews and Christians did not accept Quran as the Truth, and did not change their belief and ways.
- Quran and Prophet Muhammad SAW were sent as clear evidence
- Still non-believers differed and denied the message and the messenger.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Non-believers are called Worst Creatures, and Allah SWT ordains Fire as their place of stay. ➤ On the other hand Allah SWT will be pleased with the believers, who do good deeds, and Jannah is promised to them. ➤ In short, we should be afraid of only Allah SWT and follow only His Commandments. Discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Discuss the three eternal principles of religion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tawheed - Worship of only Allah (SWT) • Establishing Salat (regular prayer), and • Paying Zakat (poor-due)
